SBS TV Insight Seeks Australian Men to Talk About Sexual Harassment

SBS TV's Insight program is Australia's leading current affairs forum.

On Monday September 13, Insight is hosting a forum on Sexual Harassment in the Australian workplace and beyond: is it still active in the community?

Insight wants to create a forum that's fair, balanced and diverse. Insight is asking Australian men to join our audience to share their personal experiences of sexual harassment in the workplace.

Have you been on the receiving end of sexual harassment yourself?

Have you witnessed sexual harassment at a workplace where it's the norm?

Have you regrettably crossed the line, only to realise you took it too far – and you're now willing to speak out about it to help other men?

Or do you think political correctness gone too far by limiting normal human behaviour?

Insight would love you to get involved. Get in touch with us as soon as possible.

A slow story: Papermaking has a diverse history, spreading globally (but slowly) from East to West, reaching Central Asia by 751AD and Baghdad by 793AD. By the fourteenth century, there were several paper mills throughout Europe. More recently, Bourke Street, Sydney, saw the first paper being made in Australia by Fischer & Duncan in 1818.
